ANN E. LUNDBERG

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH

312 Second St. SE Orange City, IA 51041 (712) 737-3041 lundberg@nwciowa.edu Department of English Northwestern College Orange City, IA 51041 (712) 707-7041

EDUCATION:

1999: PhD: English, University of Notre Dame

Dissertation: Mapping the Geologic Wilderness: Science, Nature Writing and the American Self.

Director: James Dougherty

Examination Fields: American Literature to 1865, Ninteenth-Century

British Literature, Critical Theory

1992: MA: English, University of Notre Dame

1989: BA: English, Honors degree (GPA 3.92), University of Wyoming

1989: BSc: Geology, Honors degree (GPA 3.92), University of Wyoming

PUBLICATIONS:

Review of Rooted: Seven Midwestern Writers of Place. ISLE 13.1 (Winter 2008): 281-83

"Casa Grande, the Ruin of Expectations" Western American Literature 42.3 Fall 2007: 222-52.

"The Ruins of a Bygone Geologic Empire': Clarence King and the Place of the Primitive in the Evolution of American Identity." ATQ Special Issue: Adventure and Exploration. New Series 18.3 (Sept. 2004): 179-203.

Review of Tinkering With Eden: A Natural History of Exotic Species in America. ISLE 10.1 (Spring 2003): 276-77.

"Yosemite's Castaway Book: John Muir and the Troubling Geology of Native America." Western American Literature 36.1 (Spring 2001): 25-55.

"Exploring the Linguistic Wilderness of The Maine Woods." Reading the Earth: New Directions in the Study of Literature and the Environment. Ed. Michael P. Branch, Rochelle Johnson, Daniel Patterson, and Scott Slovic. U of Idaho P, 1998. 194-210.

"Towards a Thesis-based Interpretation" Legacy: The Magazine for the National Association for Interpretation 8.2 (March/April 1997): 14-17.

Review of Emerson: The Mind on Fire. Religion and Literature 28.1 (Spring 1996): 145-46.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS:

"Uplift and Erosion: The Literary Geology of Colorado" Rocky Mountain National Park, Saturday Night in the Park lecture series; August 1, 2009

"The closing stages of that wonderful period of volcanic action": The Hayden Survey in Yellowstone." Western American Literature; Boulder, CO; October 2008.

- "The Origin of the Black Hills: Native Stories and Geologic Narratives" Association for the Study of Literature and Environment; Spartanburg, SC; June 2007.
- "Uplift and Erosion: The Literary Geology of the 19th Century." Public Lecture presented at the University of Wyoming American Heritage Center; Laramie, WY; January, 2007.
- "The Uplift of the Grand Cañon Region: Clarence Dutton's Moral Geology"
 Association for the Study of Literature and Environment; Eugene, OR; June 2005
- "Ancient America at the World's Fair" Nineteenth-Century Studies Association, St. Louis, MO, March 2004
- "Casa Grande, the Ruin of Our Expectations" Western American Literature Conference, Tucson, AZ October 2002
- "The Semiotics of Native American Rock Art" Western American Literature Conference, Omaha, NE, October 2001
- "The Tall Grass Whispers: The Voice of the Land in O Pioneers!" Willa Cather and the Environmental Imagination, Leid Conference Center, Nebraska City, NE, June 2000
- "John C. Van Dyke and the Evolution of the Desert Aesthetic," "Writing Nature Inside and Out" Representing Place, Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, November 1998.
- "The Ruins of a Bygone Geologic Empire': Clarence King and the Place of the Primitive in the Evolution of American Identity." Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment Bi-Annual Conference, University of Montana, July 1997.
- "John Muir and the Geology of Native America" Seventh Annual Conference on Wilderness, University of Nevada, Reno, March 1996.
- "Exploring the Linguistic Wilderness of The Maine Woods" Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment Bi-Annual Conference, Colorado State University, June 1995.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

2006-2009: Associate Professor, Northwestern College Supervisor: Adrienne Forgette, Dean of Faculty

1999-2005: Assistant Professor, Northwestern College

Teaching Responsibilities at Northwestern: "College Writing" "Introduction to Literary Study" (both course taught almost every semester) "African American Literature" (2000, 2002, 2009) "American Literature I" (2000, 2004, 2008); "Native American Literature" (2004, 2008); Native American Rhetoric (2009); The Civil War in Literature: Nat Turner to Cold Mountain (2009); History and Theory of Rhetoric (2009); Seminar in Interpretation" (2002); Nineteenth Century British Literature (2003) Directed Study in History: Women Lighthouse Keepers (2003); Directed Studies in English: Mountaineering/Writing (2002); Soutwest Indian Literature (2009); Directed Honors Research: Wieland and Witchcraft (2005)

Presentations in other college departments: "Nat Turner's Slave Rebellion" American History I, History Department (2008); "Bedrock to Boulders to Dust in the Wind: The Geology of Siouxland" Northwestern Day of Learning in Community (2008); "John Mur and the Geology of Native America" Western History, History Department (2002); "Wilderness and Ethics in the National Park Service" Bioethics, Biology Department (2001); "Stories and a Sense of Place," Introduction to Environmental Science; "Geology of the Sioux Quartzite," Terra Nova Field Trip; "Geology of the Loess Hills," Biology Department retreat, Northwestern College (2000)

- 1998: Instructor, University of Notre Dame English Department: "American Nature Writing," (I prepared and presented a lecture/discussion curriculum that viewed nature writing from historical and philosophical perspectives.)
- 1998: Teaching Assistant: "Theories of Reading" Pew Younger Scholars Summer Seminar, University of Notre Dame (I tutored prospective graduate students in the principles of critical theory, and assisted them in designing research projects, writing abstracts, and structuring seminar papers.)
- 1997-98: Instructor: "Writing Nature Inside and Out," University of Notre Dame English Department (I designed and implemented a literature and writing course which looked at nature writing from a writer's point of view.)
- 1995: Teaching Assistant: "Environmental Psychology," University of Notre Dame Psychology Department (I provided continuity for an interdisciplinary course taught by a series of thirteen guest lecturers each of whom addressed their disciplines' perspective on environmental crises, and assisted students in researching and writing term papers.)
- 1994: Instructor: "Freshman Composition and Literature," University of Notre Dame Freshman Writing Program (Centering the course around the literary theme of "Innocence and Experience," I introduced students to methods of analytic writing and the reading of fiction, poetry, and oral literature.)
- 1991-1992: Teaching Assistant, "British Literarary Traditions: 1660 to 1900," University of Notre Dame English Department (I met with students, gave occasional lectures, and graded papers and exams.)
- 1990: Teaching Assistant: "Igneous and Metamorphic Petrography," University of Wyoming Geology Department (I taught and supervised the lab, designed lab exams, graded labwork, and assisted in grading coursework.)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE AND ACADEMIC SERVICE:

2000-present Advisor, English Department
2008-2010	Chair, English Department
2008-2009	Member, Day of Learning in Community Planning Committee
2004-2006	Chair, Faculty Development Committee
	English Department Secretary
	Coordinator: Departmental Review and Assessment
2003-2005	Chair, Faculty Development Committee
	English Department Secretary
2002-2003:	Member, Faculty Development Committee
	Chair, Academic Resources Committee
	Faculty Secretary
	English Department Secretary

Faculty Advisor, Outdoor Adventure Club

2001-2002: Chair, Student Affairs Committee

Member, Academic Resourse Committee Member, Environmental Studies Work Group Faculty Advisor, Outdoor Adventure Club

2000-2001: Chair, Student Affairs Committee

Faculty Advisor, Outdoor Adventure Club Member, Terra Nova

1995-96: Managing Editor, Nineteenth-Century Contexts, University of Notre Dame

1995-98: Editorial Staff, Religion and Literature, University of Notre Dame

1994-96: Notre Dame English Department Intellectual Concerns Committee

ACADEMIC HONORS:

2006-2007 John Topham and Susan Redd Butler Faculty Fellowship Award. Charles Redd Center for Western Studies, Brigham Young University. For research project: "Uplift and Erosion: The geological origins of 19th-century American landscape, culture, and identity."

2006-2007: Research Sabbatical, Northwestern College

2006 University of Wyoming American Heritage Center travel grant ($500) "Uplift and Erosion: The geological origins of 19th-century American landscape, culture, and identity."

2005 Tenure and Promotion to Associate Professor, Northwestern College

2004 Summer Scholarship Award, Northwestern College, to write "Casa Grande, the Ruin of our Expectations"

1996-97: Dissertation Year Fellowship, University of Notre Dame

1992: Burger Award for Essays in Theatre, "Sir Nicolas' Cabinet: Shadwell's The Virtuoso and the Study of Mankind." University of Wyoming Theatre Department

1990-91: Presidents Fellowship, University of Notre Dame

1989: Kuehn Arts and Sciences Summer Research Fellowship, for Senior Thesis, "An Historical Review of Hayden's Geological Survey of the Territories in Wyoming." University of Wyoming

OTHER EMPLOYMENT OF NOTE

Seasonal Interpretive Ranger, National Park Service, employed variously at: Natural Bridges National Monument, Theodore Roosevelt National Park, Apostle Islands National Lakeshore, Hovenweep National Monument, Cedar Breaks National Monument

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

Captain, Orange City Volunteer Fire Department Elder, Alton Presbyterian Church