

Humanities

B.A. | Bachelor of Arts in Humanities

nwciova.edu/humanities

Major variety

Your interests are as diverse as our major options—so why limit yourself to one specific field of study? Craft a major suited to your passions by selecting a primary and secondary focus of study from these options:

- Art: You and your classmates will encourage each other in artistic expression, providing feedback to further develop your art.
- English: Hone your creative writing skills and read the literature staples of cultures across the globe.
- History: Explore history through the lens of Christian faith and learn to value accounts written from other perspectives.
- Music: Develop an appreciation for different musical styles and use your gifts to honor God in song.
- Philosophy: Your professors will guide you in lively discussion of ethics, logic, morality, and what it means to know and be.
- Biblical and theological studies: Strengthen your knowledge of Scripture and theology and learn practical tools for church ministry and beyond.
- Spanish: Opportunities to volunteer with the local Hispanic community will help your language skills flourish.
- Theatre: Whether you act onstage or assist behind the scenes, every role is valued equally.

10 music ensembles

Music ensembles are open to all students, with scholarships available to gifted musicians.

Off-campus study

Explore God's world in 21 international and five domestic locations.

Top-billed theatre

Northwestern's theatre season includes 6+ productions.

Outcomes

YouTube CEO Susan Wojcicki. Former Walt Disney Company CEO Michael Eisner. Award-winning author J.K. Rowling. What do each of these individuals have in common? A degree in the humanities. In 2019, approximately 90% of U.S. humanities graduates reported a high degree of life satisfaction, according to the American Academy of Arts & Sciences.

Join our standout humanities alumni at employers such as:

- KSQ Design, Tulsa, OK
- North Park Covenant Church–ECC, Chicago, IL
- Springbrook, Oneonta, NY
- Zovio, Chandler, AZ